(2) Duration: The OSLT shall last three (3) days and will generally follow the Training Schedule provided in ANNEX C and D.

The information necessary to secure a reservation is as follows: Course Title, JA ON-SITE RESERVE TRAINING COURSES; School number, 181; Course number, JAO-1; and Class number, 001. (4) Agenda: Designated instructors and SMEs are currently scheduled to provide at least seven (7) hours of CLE-level legal instruction on four of the six core competencies and related topics, plus one (1) optional hour of professional responsibility. Each participating LOD will be responsible for designating a CLE Coordinator and working to pursue the maximum CLE for the states covered by their respective LOD. Once appointed, the individual CLE Coordinator will contact the 134th LOD CLE Coordinator, CPT Roy McDonald, at roy.l.mcdonald.mil@mail.mil, for further instructions.

(b) Enlisted: Designated instructors and SMEs are currently scheduled to provide at least seven (7) hours of separate paralegal training. Additionally, each supporting LOD Commander will provide one (1) experienced 27A to serve as a notional Brigade JAs for enlisted training.

OPORD 15-001 (Southeast Region On-Site Legal Training 20-22 MAR 15)

(5) Attendees: The 134th LOD Commander is responsible for maintaining a complete and accurate list of all attendees, including instructors, supporting staff and special guests. The 134th LOD Commander is the responsible authority for those attending the OSLT through the Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATRRS). Only those Soldiers with a reservation through ATRRS will attend the OSLT. All no-shows will be promptly reported to the Legal Command and USARC.

(a) Within the USARLC, the Southeast Region OSLT is the designated OSLT for Soldiers assigned to the 2nd, 12th, 134th, 174th and 213th LODs. The USARLC G7 is the approving authority for any exemptions to attend this on-site outside the LOD's assigned OSLT. Exceptions are encouraged for Soldiers who are providing administrative support to the OSLT and for Soldiers who have redeployed within six (6) months of the date scheduled for their LOD's OSLT, if such OSLT was outside of the Soldier's normal commuting distance.

(b) Attendance at all sessions is mandatory for all USAR Soldiers unless excused by the Commander, 134th LOD. The 134th LOD will provide the registration list to each participating LOD so that all registered Soldiers may be accounted for by their respective Commands.

(c) Course evaluations will be available to all attendees on JAGU and will be completed by 2 APR 15. Hardcopies of the evaluation will be available for Army National Guard and Active Component attendees to complete by conclusion of the OSLT.

(6) Additional Instructions:

In addition, the 134th LOD will facilitate the digital distribution of OSLT materials such as notices, announcements, maps, speaker presentations, military bios, training agendas, lodging information, etc. on JAGU to facilitate on-line learning. Materials will be available 7 days prior to the OSLT.

(c) After Action Report (AAR): An After Action Report (AAR) will be prepared by the 134th LOD Commander and sent to the USARLC G7 within thirty (30) days from the conclusion of the OSLT.

OPORD 15-001 (Southeast Region On-Site Legal Training 20-22 MAR 15)

(d) Attendance Report: An Attendance report will be prepared by the 134th LOD Commander and sent to the LCS ATRRS POC, CW2 Pangelinan at normajean.n.pangelinan.mil@mail.mil within thirty (30) days from the conclusion of the OSLT.

(e) Icebreaker & Senior Leader Social Function: There are no formal events scheduled outside the of OSLT schedule. A voluntary social gathering has been planned at McKellar's Lodge on Fort Bragg with an "all you can eat" buffet costing no more than $15 dollars per person, starting at 1830 hours on Saturday, 21 MAR 15. AC/RC networking and individual LOD "get-togethers" are encouraged throughout the OSLT. The 134th LOD Commander encourages attendees to visit nearby downtown attractions during their free time. Information about things to see and do around Fort Bragg and Fayetteville, NC, can be found at www.fortbraggmwr.com or <http://www.visitdowntownfayetteville.com>.

(f) Awards/Promotion: Are strongly discouraged and will not be conducted during any part of the plenary session(s). If any attending LOD Commander anticipated the need or desires to recognize an individual in front of all attendees, said recognition should be coordinated through OSLT Action Officer CPT John Banaghan at least 10 days prior to the start of the OSLT for consideration.

(7) Tasks to the Supporting LODs.

(a) The 2nd, 12th, 174th, and 213th LODs shall designate an Assistant On-Site Training Coordinator (OSTC) to work with the 134th OSLT Action Officer, CPT John Banaghan.

(b) The 2nd, 12th, 174th, and 213th LODs shall designate an Assistant CLE Coordinator to serve as a liaison with the 134th CLE Coordinator CPT Roy McDonald. Assistant CLE Coordinators shall be responsible for securing CLE credit from their respective state bars. Assistant CLE Coordinators shall also be responsible for ensuring that a Certificate of Attendance for each JA, if required by their respective State Bar, is forwarded to the State CLE Coordinator.

(c) The 2nd, 12th, 174th, and 213th LODs shall designate a Commissioned Officer (Major or below) from each supporting unit to participate in the entire JAGEX during the enlisted breakout and will serve as notional Brigade Judge Advocates. Efforts should be made to identify volunteers who are not concerned about CLE credit.

(d) The LOD Commanders will ensure that their Soldiers, scheduled to attend the OSLT, have a reservation in ATRRS. The LOD Commanders will ensure that any changes in attendance for their LOD will be promptly coordinated with their OSTC who will then notify the 134th LOD OSTC of the change, and promptly reflect it in ATRRS. The Southeast Region OSLT course number in ATRRS is JAO-01, school code 181, class number 001; course title-JA ON-SITE RESERVE TRAINING COURSES. After receiving a reservation in ATRRS, the OSTC will issue the passcode for the Soldier to register in JAGU.

(e) The LOD Commanders are responsible for securing travel arrangements and conducting a risk assessment for all Soldiers within their LOD that travel by Privately Owned Vehicle (POV) more than fifty (50) miles to the OSLT, and shall take appropriate measures to reduce any undue risk. Those Soldiers who travel by POV more than fifty (50) miles to the OSLT must complete an automated risk assessment using the Travel Risk Planning System (TRIPS) online at the United States Combat Readiness Center (CRC) web-site at <https://crc.army.mil> and attach it to their Defense Travel System (DTS) Authorization. The LOD Commanders are responsible for the safe arrival and return of their personnel.

(f) Each LOD Commander or his/her representative will provide a roster of attendees from their LOD NLT 25 FEB 15 to SGT Eric Treptow at eric.m.treptow.mil@mail.mil. Once the LOD roster has been received, SGT Treptow will notify the unit POC with their unit members' confirmation numbers. The Soldiers will then need to call the hotel and attach their credit card to the reservation. All Soldiers assigned to the LODs shall stay at Fort Bragg lodging unless specifically exempted by the 134th LOD Commander or his designee.

(8) Coordinating Instructions. The duty uniform for the OSLT is the Army Combat Uniform (ACU) for military personnel and appropriate civilian business attire for civilian personnel.

4. SUSTAINMENT.

a. Funding.

(1) The 134th LOD Commander will provide a memorandum to the Legal Command G-7 Training Division, CPT Tony Slaton at tony.m.slaton.mil@mail.mil, outlining the projected costs associated with conducting the OSLT.

(2) Duty Status. Attendees shall request orders from their respective units. Do not submit Requests for Orders to the 134th LOD. Soldiers will attend in an AT status, unless the LOD Commander approves attendance in a Battle Assembly Re-Scheduled Training (RST) status (caution, see para 4(3) below) or unless ADT-S funds become available. Note, however, ADT-S funds are currently very limited. Therefore, in an abundance of fiscal caution, Commanders should plan to use AT funds. Requests for Orders (through RLAS) must be submitted to the LC G3/7 NLT Friday, 20 FEB 15. OSLTs are ATRRS courses and ATRRS reservations are required to attend. As such, the LC G-3/5/7 will not approve orders unless the Soldier has a reserved seat in ATRRS. Commanders and potential attendees are encouraged to manage their AT schedules carefully as it is anticipated that the LC will receive no more than 14 days AT per Soldier.

OPORD 15-001 (Southeast Region On-Site Legal Training 20-22 MAR 15)

(3) TDY and Per Diem. Soldiers who reside outside of a 50-mile radius from the OSLT are entitled to TDY for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, including lodging for Friday and Saturday nights. Soldiers who reside outside of a 300-mile radius from the OSLT may receive TDY for Thursday, including lodging, unless flight arrangements can be made for timely arrival at the OSLT NLT 1300 Friday. Travel Authorizations must be initiated (through DTS) by individual travelers at least 45 days before the start of the OSLT. If attending in an RST status and residing within 50 miles, Soldiers will not be reimbursed for travel and lodging expenses. If attending in an RST status and otherwise eligible (i.e., Fort Bragg is the Soldier's unit of assignment and the respective mileage criteria are met), Soldiers may utilize the Lodging-in-Kind and/or IDT-Travel Reimbursement Program. As the rules concerning these programs change, Commanders are encouraged to ensure eligibility prior to their Soldiers using RST to attend.

(4) No registration fees for instructional material will be assessed. Instructional materials will be placed on JAGU and be made available to onsite participants prior to the event.

(5) All Enlisted Soldiers, if in Inactive Duty Training (IDT) status, must be provided subsistence in accordance with AR 30-22, The Army Food Program (24 July 2012).

b. Lodging/Transportation/Check in.

(1) Lodging: Lodging is available on Fort Bragg through the Intercontinental Hotel Group (IHG) Army Hotels Program. There will be a block of rooms reserved for those attending the OSLT at Moon and Hardy Halls, through the Airborne Inn. All Soldiers assigned to the LODs within the USARLC shall stay at Fort Bragg lodging unless specifically exempted by the 134th LOD Commander or his designee. Each LOD must submit a roster of attendees from their LOD NLT 25 FEB 15 to SGT Eric Treptow at eric.m.treptow.mil@mail.mil. Once the LOD roster has been received and confirmation numbers assigned, SGT Treptow will notify the unit POC to provide the confirmation numbers for their attendees. Individual Soldiers must then call the hotel and provide their credit card number to secure the reservation. All lodging reservations for individual attendees will be made through the 134th LOD, SGT Eric Treptow at 910-907-1462 or eric.m.treptow.mil@mail.mil NLT 1 MAR 15.

(a) If lodging facilities/rooms permit, Soldiers in the rank of 2LT to LTC and PVT to MSG, will be required to share a room. Soldiers will be paired by same sex and rank. If it is not possible to pair Soldiers holding same rank, every effort will be made to ensure the rank difference between paired Soldiers is not more than one pay grade. Under no circumstances will a Commissioned Officer be paired with an Enlisted Soldier. Married Soldiers may share a room if availability permits. Alternative lodging proposals/billeting arrangements (barracks, etc.) and any other issues regarding OSLT lodging arrangements must be timely submitted to SGT Eric Treptow, the Logistics NCOIC.

OPORD 15-001 (Southeast Region On-Site Legal Training 20-22 MAR 15)

(b) Payment for lodging is an individual responsibility and is reimbursable in accordance with the Joint Travel Regulation (JTR). The 134th LOD will coordinate the provision of lodging for registrants. All participating LOD Commanders will ensure their personnel make timely lodging reservations.

(2) Transportation: Each LOD Commander is responsible for the planning and execution of travel to the OSLT. Travel is planned and executed in a manner consistent with the JTR and other applicable regulations, with full regard to safety, without requiring an added duty day or requiring travel before 0600 hours or after 2000 hours. Each Soldier must exercise the same care in incurring expenses paid by the United States Government as a prudent person would when traveling on personal business at personal expense.

(a) POV: Soldiers who are traveling by POV more than 50 miles are required to complete an automated risk assessment using the Travel Risk Planning System (TRIPS). It's available online from US Combat Readiness Center (CRC) website at <https://safety.army.mil>. The TRIPS results signed by both Soldier and the chain of command must be uploaded into DTS, as a substantiating document.

(b) Flight information:

1) Soldiers from the 12th LOD (those for whom flying is more economical for the Government) and the 174th LOD will fly into Fayetteville Regional Airport (FAY), Fayetteville, North Carolina, located approximately 10 miles from Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Each unit is authorized two 12 passenger vans to transport their Soldiers to and from Airport.

2) Soldiers from the 2nd LOD and 213th LOD will fly into Raleigh/Durham (RDU) International Airport, Raleigh, North Carolina, located approximately 75 miles from Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Each unit is authorized two 12 passenger vans to transport their Soldiers to and from Airport.

3) Soldiers from the above units and those from all other units must exercise the same care in incurring expenses paid by the United States Government as a prudent person would when traveling on personal business at personal expense.

(3) Check in. The OSLT check-in/registration is Friday, 20 MAR 15, from 1000–1400 hours at the Airborne Inn's Moon Hall, 1626 Reilly Street, Fort Bragg, North Carolina 28310.
